

Dripping Springs ISD School Guide

OVERVIEW

Dripping Springs ISD is located in the northwest portion of Hays County (approximately 20 miles west of Austin) and offers a comprehensive curriculum based on the goal of student achievement at the highest level. Teachers strive to personalize instruction to meet the needs of each student and help him or her reach individual potentials and connect with personal passions.

DRIPPING SPRINGS POINTS OF PRIDE

- Starting in fall of 2017, the district operates seven schools along with a central administration office, and separate transportation and support service facilities. In 2016-17, DSISD eclipsed the 6,000-student mark and enrollment is growing at a rate of 6-7 percent per year.
- Dripping Springs ISD often is recognized for excellence at the district level. For three consecutive years (2014-16), DSISD was a statewide finalist as the District of the Year in the H-E-B Excellence in Education Awards program. In 2017, the Board of Trustees was a finalist for the H-E-B School Board of the Year in the state of Texas.
