

Round Rock ISD School Guide

OVERVIEW

Round Rock ISD (RRISD) is located in southern Williamson County and northwest Travis County and includes the City of Round Rock and portions of the City of Austin and the City of Cedar Park. The area covers 110 square miles encompassing high tech manufacturing and urban retail centers, suburban neighborhoods, and farm and ranch land.

Roughly 48,142 students attend the district's five high schools, ten middle schools, 33 elementary schools, and two alternative learning centers. Enrollment grows by nearly 1,000 students per year.

The district has a diverse ethnic base within the student population.

The average student-teacher ratio for RRISD is 14.9. The annual dropout rate for students in grades 9–12 is just 0.5% and 64% of the district's graduating seniors take the SAT and ACT college entrance exams, scoring well above state and national averages.
